NEWS RELEASE: June 15, 2005

Annual Fathers Day Picnic on June 19, 2005

On June 19, 2005 Fathers Are Capable Too: Parenting Association will be hosting its annual public Fathers Day Picnic. This is our annual celebration of children, and of their parents.

The picnic is open to the community at large and we invite all parents, with or without their children, to come down for some free hamburgers, hot dogs, etc. with us.

The picnic is being held at Sir Casimir Gzowski Park on the shores of Lake Ontario in western Toronto. The park is at Windermere and the Lakeshore West from 11:00 am until 3:00 pm.

Please note: we are not a non-child run which the City has scheduled to start east of us in the park earlier in the day. This is our 14th year of our public picnic.

If you need a map to the location, or more details, please visit our website at www.fact.on.ca . Come on down and celebrate parenthood and children with us.

Place: Sir Casimir Gzowski Park

Time: Sunday, June 19, 2005, 11:00 am – 3:00 pm

For further information, call David Osterman at (416)622-3450 or the FACT line at (416)410-3228.

Fathers Are Capable Too: Parenting Association is one of the largest non-custodial parents' and children's rights organisations in Canada dealing with custody and access. F.A.C.T. is an organisation of both men and women working to support our children's right to have a relationship with both parents. We are a not-for-profit non-custodial parents' and fathers' support and advocacy group.
